The Fall Mountain Lake
Property Owners Association
Plymouth, Connecticut

Article I - Meetings

Section I (revised 11/2013)

The place of all meetings of the Association shall be within the territorial limits of said Association or such other place as governing board may determine. Notice of the time and place of the annual and special meetings shall be announced at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting and a notice sent by mail to the last known address of each property owner.

Section II (revised 11/2013)

The annual meeting of the members of the Association for the election of board members to succeed those whose terms expire and for the transactions of such other business as may properly come before the meeting, shall be held each year, not later than the first Sunday in May, at a time determined by the governing board.

The voting at all meetings may be by voice vote (by "living voice") or show of hands, or any member may demand a count whereupon such vote shall be taken by secret ballot. A complete list of the members entitled to vote at any meeting arranged in alphabetical order, shall be prepared by the secretary. When land is owned by two or more persons, only one may vote. Members must be present to cast a vote. There are no proxy or absentee ballots.

Section III (revised 11/2013)

"The order of business at the annual meeting shall be as follows:

- (A) Calling meeting to order
- (B) Pledge of Allegiance
- (C) Proof of notice of meeting
- (D) Acceptance of received minutes of last meeting
- (E) Report of officers
- (F) Reports from committees
- (G) Accept review of finances
- (H) Present budget and vote to accept and recommendation of tax rate
- (I) Old business
- (J) New business
- (K) Election of members to board of governors
- (L) Adjourn

Section IV (revised 11/2013)

Special meetings of the Association for any purpose or purposes, may be called by the majority of the governing board, or upon the request of fifteen (15%) percent of the members of the Association.

Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section V (revised 11/2013)

A quorum at any meeting of the Association shall consist of 15 members entitled to vote, with the exception of Article IV Section 1 regarding the Special Meeting which requires not less than 15% of the members entitled to vote. If a quorum is not present at a properly called meeting, those present may adjourn the meeting. All members must be notified of a new meeting in which it is explained that this is a rescheduling of the adjourned meeting due to a lack of quorum.

Article II - Governing Board

Section I

Regular meetings of the board may be held at such time and place as the governing board may from time to time designate. Such meetings shall be posted under the Freedom of Information guidelines and the charter.

Section II (revised 11/2013)

According to the charter (section IV senate bill #863 of the charter) the governing board consists of 11 members. A quorum of all meetings of the board shall consist of a simple majority of at least 6 members of the whole board; but less than a quorum may adjourn any meeting, with the exception of Article IV Section I, where, if there isn't a quorum the board can act.

Section III (revised 11/2013)

Standing or temporary committees may be appointed from its own members of the governing board or other Association members. The governing board may from time to time invest such committees with such powers as it may see fit, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the board. Such committee shall appoint a chair at its 1st committee meeting. The chair shall report to the governing board.

Section IV (revised 11/2013)

Committees will submit copies of all minutes to the secretary per the Freedom of Information Law.

Section V (revised 11/2013)

Any member of the board or committee member missing five meetings per year will be automatically dropped from the board or their committee, whichever applies. The year begins in May with the 1st board meeting after the annual meeting and ends at the next year's annual meeting. Any vacancy created by the affect of this section shall be filled in accordance with Charter, Section VI.

Section VI (revised 11/2013)

Any member of the board not current with their taxes or in violation of the bylaws will be dropped from the board. Any member not current with their taxes or in violation of the by laws can not serve on the board. Any vacancy created by the affect of this section shall be filled in accordance with Charter, Section VI.

Section VII (revised 11/2013)

The governing board has the power to enforce all bylaws and ordinances stated in the Association charter, Senate Bill #863, section VI.

Article III - Officers

Section I (revised 11/2013)

The officers of the Association shall be a president, one or more vice-presidents who shall be elected for one year by the members of the governing board at their first meeting after the annual meeting of the Association and who shall hold office until their successors are elected.

Section II (revised 11/2013)

The president shall preside at all meetings of the Association and the governing board. The president shall sign and counter-sign all documents authorized by the board, and shall exercise all duties as are incident to the office or are properly required of the president by the board.

Section III

The vice-presidents, in the order designated by the board, shall exercise the functions of the president during the absence or disability of the president.

Section IV (revised 11/2013)

The secretary, treasurer and tax collector are to be appointed by the board as provided in the charter (per section IV of the charter for secretary and treasurer and section VIII for tax collector) and each shall receive an annual salary for their services. The salary shall be fixed by the board of governors. It shall be the duty of the governing board to arrange for the bonding of the treasurer. The board may request a bond of any and all of the officers to the Association, with sufficient surety or sureties conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices. The cost of such bonds shall be borne by the Association.

The secretary shall record and preserve the minutes of all board meetings, annual and special meetings and shall comply with all Freedom of Information laws as directed by the State of Connecticut. The secretary shall if need be attend any Freedom of Information classes. In addition the secretary will perform any duties that the governing board and president may proscribe from time to time.

The treasurer shall have charge of the financial affairs of the Fall Mountain Lake Property Owner's Association, subject in all matters relative thereto the control of the governing board and as otherwise provided. The treasurer is authorized to make disbursements upon voucher duly authorized by the governing board.

All funds shall forthwith be deposited by the treasurer with the trust company or bank designated by the board. The treasurer shall keep or cause to be kept, regular and faithful accounts of all monies thus received or disbursed. The treasurer shall render a report to the annual meeting, a report monthly to the president and governing board and at such other times as the board may request.

The tax collector will be responsible for the preparation of the tax bills, recording and depositing of taxes collected. The tax collector will type and place liens pursuant to the provision of section 1813 of the general statutes. The tax collector will work with the attorney designated by the governing board to assure that the taxes levied are collected. The tax collector shall have all powers of collectors of town taxes and shall be accountable to the board in the same manner as the town tax collectors are accountable to the town governing board. The tax collector will submit monthly to the board a written report of the status of the back taxes and current taxes to be collected. The tax collector may have to attend appropriate classes offered by the state unless proven qualified.

Section V

The board shall fill vacancies in any position or office only after advertising to the membership of such vacancies at any of its meetings.

Section VI

The officers shall hold office until their successors are chosen. Any officer elected or appointed by the board may be removed at any time, with due cause, by two thirds (2/3) vote of the whole board.

Article IV - Amendment of By-Laws

Section I

A special meeting will be called for the purpose of the alterations, amendments or repeals of the by-laws may be made by the vote of not less than 15% of the members entitled to vote at any special meeting with a quorum.

If the quorum of 15% as stated is not met, the governing board by a majority vote of the whole board can alter amend or repeal the by-laws.

Article V – Committees

Section I (revised 11/2013)

The governing board will appoint all members of any and all standing committees. Committees will consist of a minimum of 3 members. The committee members will then choose a chairperson. All committee members must be members of the Association as defined in Common Bill Senate #863, section 1.

Section II

The recreation committee shall bring forth from time to time such entertainment as may be deemed suitable for the occasion. This committee shall be responsible for all forms of entertainment authorized by the governing board or president.

Section III (revised 11/2013)

The beach and property committee will have the care and upkeep of the bathing beaches and other property the Association may acquire. The beach committee will also fulfill any other duties that the board of governors may prescribe from time to time. Receptacles will be provided for the beaches and no refuse shall be thrown on the beach.

Section IV (revised 11/2013)

The board of directors shall appoint an independent source and submit to the independent source the books of the Association to review and submit a written report at the annual meeting and at such other times deemed necessary.

Section V (revised 11/2013)

The lake management committee shall put into place a management plan as to the management of the lake and such plan shall be presented to the board of directors. In addition the committee shall be responsible for lake management regulations and submitting them to the board for approval. All members who wish to repair, replace or build piers, docks and floats shall submit their plans to the governing board who in turn will submit to the Lake Management Committee for their review, making sure all regulations are followed. Once reviewed, Lake Management Committee will provide their recommendation for formal approval by the governing board. Property owners must consult the governing board before filling or changing drains and rain gutters that go into the lake.

Section VI (revised 11/2013)

Emergency Response Team: The governing board shall set up as a standing committee and the board shall appoint its members.. Duties are laid out in the Emergency Response Plan, maintained at the office of the Association.

Section VII

The by-laws committee shall prepare such by-laws or resolutions as may be necessary and submit them to the governing board.

Section VIII

The finance committee will consist of three (3) members (Treasurer, Tax Collector and 1st or 2nd Vice President). The finance committee will be directly responsible for making the budget to be presented to the board of directors at its March meeting. The finance committee will review all requests as to any expenditure outside of the budget. Any expenditure that exceeds $3,000.00 will require the general membership approval at a special meeting. The treasurer will make available to the finance committee all accounts and a complete availability of funds.

Section IX (revised 11/2013)

Members of the Association shall follow all zoning ordinances for the Town of Plymouth.

Section X (revised 11/2013)

The board of directors at the first board meeting after the annual meeting shall appoint the enforcement officer. The enforcement officer along with the president may appoint any one or more from the general membership to work with him or her.

The enforcement officer shall enforce all regulations set down by the board of directors under separate rules and regulations, and/or ordinances along with the by-laws.

The enforcement officer, on behalf of the board, shall have the power to fine anyone who is in violation of any rule, regulation, ordinances along with by-law. Such fine will not take place until after the person has a chance to file an appeal with the judiciary committee. In the event the violator does not appeal, the fine will be in place from the date of notification.

Section XI (revised 11/2013)

The judiciary committee shall be composed of three (3) members, appointed by the governing board. The term of the office shall be for three (3) years, one vacancy occurring during each year (3-2-1). The said committee shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide controversies between members, and to hear appeals from members in violations from the enforcement officer, acting on complaint or its own initiative; sign a petition to the effect that a matter in question seriously effects the stability or best interests of the Association, the said committee must act upon said petition. Any member of the judiciary committee who is complained against, or is a witness or a party to the dispute, shall be disqualified by the governing board who shall appoint a substitute for that particular preceding. The only members of the Association who shall not be qualified to serve on the judiciary committee shall be the president, enforcement officer or any board member in violation. In the event that a member of said committee shall be elected to the presidency, such member must resign from the judiciary committee. A record of all decisions, actions and interpretations of the constitution and by-laws shall be kept by the judiciary committee, and all such interpretations made shall have the same force and effect as is embodied in the constitution and by-laws. The said committee shall have the power to call before it such members as it deems essential to a proceeding before it and a failure to respond to said call shall be considered a serious offense. The chairman of the judiciary committee shall be the senior member of said committee.

Section XII (revised 11/2013)

The historian or secretary shall preserve all the records pertaining to the Association's history, shall maintain and preserve a scrap book of the Association's publicity and shall keep any photographic records of the Association activities.

Comment Bill Senate #863 Incorporations

An act incorporating the Fall Mountain Property Owners Association

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of General Assembly convened:

Section I. The owners of a freehold interest in any land within the limits specified in Section Two of this act, in the locality known as Fall Mountain Lake in the Town of Plymouth, shall be while they continue to be owners of such land, a body politic and corporate by the name of the Fall Mountain Lake Property Owners association, and by that name they and their successors shall be a corporation in law capable of suing and being sued and pleading and being pleaded in all courts, and shall be vested with and possess the powers hereinafter specified. All persons who are over twenty-one years of age, who own or who may own any land within said limits shall, while they continue to be owners of such land, be members of the Fall Mountain Lake Property Owners Association hereinafter referred to as the "Association", and entitled to vote at any meeting of said association and shall be eligible to any office in said association.

Section II. The limits and territory of said association are defined and established as follows: The easterly boundary line beginning at a point of the south side of Allentown Road at the western boundary of the property of the Terryville Water Company and running in the southerly direction along the western boundaries of said company and the land of Emma T. Clark 2283 feet more or less to a point: then into a southwesterly direction to a point 1075 feet more or less; then in a southwesterly direction 1107 feet more or less; then 972 feet more or less in a northwesterly direction then northeasterly 833 feet more or less to a point; then in a general northerly direction 2810 feet more or less to Allentown Road; then along the south side of said road 1651 feet more or less to the point of origin.

Reference may be had to maps of the Fall Mountain Association subdivision of Fall Mountain Lake drawn by C.W. Nickerson and Son, Civil Engineers, Torrington, Connecticut, on file in the office of the Town Clerk of Plymouth at Terryville, Connecticut.

Section III. The objects of said association shall be to provide for the improvements of the lands in said territory and for the health, comfort, protection and convenience of the inhabitants thereof

Section IV. The first meeting of the Owners of said association shall be held not later than September 13, 1953, at such time and place within the limits of said association as the committee hereinafter named shall appoint in a notice warning such meeting, for the purpose of electing a governing board to consist of eleven members of the association. Four of such members shall be elected for a term of one year, four of such members shall be elected for a term of two years, and three of such members shall be elected for a term of three years, unless they or any of them shall sooner cease to be property owners within the limits of said association.

At each annual meeting thereafter, the successors of the members of the governing board whose term expire shall be elected for terms of three years. Said governing board shall elect from among its members a president, one or more vice presidents and such other officers as are deemed necessary. Said board shall appoint a secretary and a treasurer and define their duties. Neither of such appointees shall, necessarily be a member of the board and both positions may be held by one person. Annual meetings shall thereafter be held not later than the second Sunday of September, in each subsequent year at such time and place as the governing board shall direct and warn.

Section V. Michael Zigmont of Plymouth, Edgar Gauvin of Plymouth, Marjory Vaillancourt of Plymouth and William Dvorak of Plymouth, or a majority of them, shall have full power to warn the first meeting of the members of said association for the purpose of electing eleven of the members to form the governing board, which warning shall be written or printed, signed by a majority of said board, and three copies at least posted in public places within the limits of said association, at least three days before such meeting; and any member of said committee may call such meeting to order and may lead the same to the choice of a moderator and clerk and to the election of a governing board. All subsequent meetings, annual and special, shall be warned by said governing board in the manner prescribed by it in rules or by-laws made by such board.

Section VI. Any vacancy in said board, occurring during the year, may be filled by a majority of the remaining members, and such member so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section VII. Said association may purchase, acquire or own real estate or any interest therein, and the governing board may enact such by-laws and ordinances as may be incident to and necessary for the functioning out powers with which it is vested, to prescribe the salaries or compensations of all officers and employees of said association and for the following purposes; to regulate travels over the highways within the limits of the association, when, in the opinion of said board, the free and unrestricted use of said highways may become dangerous or inconvenient; to protect by suitable means property within its limits from theft or injury; to appoint at its expense one or more special policemen or watchmen who shall have the powers and duties within its limits in relation to criminals and criminal offenses that constables have in town, including the power to arrest for violation of any regulation or by-laws of said association or any law, and the judiciary shall punish for resistance to or obstruction of such special policemen or watchmen while in the proper performance of their official duties in the same manner as though they were duly constituted police officers of the Town of Plymouth; to clean and improve any and all ditches, to care for beaches and water fronts; to keep the streets and all public places within the limits of said association quiet and free from noise; to regulate the parking of motor vehicles; to build, repair, and improve highways, roads, sidewalks, piers, docks and breakwaters within the limits of said association; to require owners or leasers of land or buildings within the limits of said association to remove leaves and other inflammable material or obstructions from the highway adjacent to or in front of property owned, leased or occupied by them; to prevent the deposit upon the property within the limits of said association of any refuse, garbage or waste material of any kind which in the opinion of said board, may endanger the public health or safety or which may become a nuisance, to remove garbage, filth, night soil, ashes and other refuse matter within said limits, and to authorize such persons as the board may designate to make entry on any private property within said limits for the purpose of taking and removing all filth, garbage, ashes, night soil or any other offensive matters; to establish building lines, to protect any property from danger by fire, including the regulation of the number of cottages and structures that may be erecting or placed on a single building lot within said limits; to zone the area within the limits of said association, thereby regulating and restricting the height, number of stories, size of building, percent of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the location and use of building, structures and land for trade, industry, residence and other purposes, and establishing the boundaries of the districts for said purposes and providing penalties for violation of restrictions; to regulate the carrying on, any business that will, in the opinion of said board, be prejudicial to public health or dangerous to or constitute an unreasonable annoyance to those living or owning property in the vicinity thereof, which regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building or structures, or class of business; to regulate peddling as provided for in towns under their general statutes; to restrict the right of entry on the property of said association except upon the highways and to promote the planting of trees and shrubbery and other work leading to the improvement of the general appearance of the community. Said association shall have exclusive charge and control of all roads within the limits as shown on the maps referred to in section two which are not under town or state control. Said governing board may fix a penalty for each violation of any such laws, by-laws, ordinances or regulations, of not more than twenty-five dollars for each offense, and the penalties may be recovered in any action brought for the purpose in the name of the Fall Mountain Lake Property Owners Association before any court having jurisdiction, for the use and benefit of said association. No by-law or ordinance shall take effect until ten days after its passage nor until it shall have been posted on a signpost within the limits of the association, to be designated by the governing board, for at least seven days. A certificate of the secretary of said association of the posting of any by-laws or as provided therein shall be prima facie evidence of such posting.

Nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the board or the association to change by regulation restrictions in deeds and nothing herein shall impair the sole exclusive right of the Fall Mountain associates, its successors and assigns.

Section VIII. The territorial limits of said association shall constitute a separate taxing district within the Town of Plymouth, and the board of governors shall prepare and submit to said association at each annual meeting a budget and recommend a tax for the purpose of and based on the budget of not less than two nor more than seventy five dollars on each member as the same may appear of record on May first preceding. Any member owning more than one dwelling within the limits specified in Section 2 of this act shall be taxed as a separate member for each dwelling. Said member, however, shall have but one vote at any annual meeting, shall have the power to increase or decrease such budget and rate of taxation recommended by such board. The rate of taxation so recommended by said board shall be final unless increased or decreased by the association at such an annual meeting. The tax so laid shall be collected by the treasurer or by any collector specially appointed by the governing board for the purpose, and a rate book shall be prepared and signed by the secretary of said board within such time and in such manner as may be directed by said board, and warrants shall be issued for the collection of money due on such rate bill pursuant to the provisions of section of 1813 of the general statutes. Said association shall have the power to determine all other matters pertaining to the levy or collection of such taxes. Written notice of the rate of such tax and the amount thereof shall be sent by the treasurer or collector to each member of the association before April 15 in each year, on which date such tax shall be due and payable and in the manner stated therein, and if such tax shall not be paid when due, it shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum. The treasurer or other collector shall have all the powers of collectors of town taxes and shall be accountable to the board in the same manner as town tax collectors are accountable to selectmen. Such tax shall be a lien upon the property upon which it shall be laid and may be collected by suit in the name of the association by foreclosure of such lien or in such manner as town taxes may be collected. Such lien may be continued by certificate which shall be recorded in the land records of the Town of Plymouth, pursuant to the provision of the general statutes relating to the continuance of tax liens.

Purpose: To enable owners of land around Fall Mountain Lake to provide for improvements of said land and for the health, comfort, protection, quiet enjoyment and convenience of said owners.

Substitute House Bill No. 6110

Special Act No. 88-65

An act amending the charter of the Fall Mountain Lake Property Owners Association.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 8 of Number 555 of the Special Acts of 1953, as amended by special act 73-120, is amended to read as follows:

Each property owner within the territorial limits of said association shall be considered a member of said association for purpose of the levying and collection of taxes provided hereunder. The territorial limits of said association shall constitute a separate taxing district within the Town of Plymouth, and the board of governors shall prepare and submit to said association at each annual meeting a budget and recommend a tax for the purpose of and based on the budget, of not more than seventy-five dollars on each member as the same may appear on record on May First preceding. Any member owning more than one dwelling or lot or any combination of dwellings and lots within the limits specified in Section II of this act shall be taxed as a separate member for each and shall be taxed as a separate member for each dwelling or lot which has different owners of record. Said member, however shall have but one vote at the association meeting, shall have the power to increase or decrease such budget and rate of taxation recommended by said board. The rate of taxation so recommended by said board shall be final unless increased or decreased by the association at such annual meeting. The tax so laid shall be collected by the treasurer or by any collector specially appointed by the governing board for the purpose, and a rate book shall be prepared and signed by the secretary of said board within such time and in such manner as may be directed by said board, and warrants shall be issued for the collection of money due on such rate bill pursuant to the provisions of Section 1813 of the general statutes.

Said association shall have the power to determine all other matters pertaining to the levy or collection of such taxes. Written notice of the rate of such tax and the amount thereof shall be sent by the treasurer or collector to each member of the association before April 15 in each year, on which date such tax shall be due and payable and in the manner stated therein, and if such tax shall not be paid when due, it shall bear interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum. The treasurer or other collector shall have all the powers of collectors of town taxes and shall be accountable to the board in the same manner as town tax collectors are accountable to selectmen. Such tax shall be a lien upon the property upon which it shall be laid and may be collected by suit in the name of the association by foreclosure of such lien or in such manner as town taxes may be collected. Such lien may be continued by certificate which shall be recorded in the land records of the Town of Plymouth, pursuant to the provisions of the general statutes relating to the continuance of tax liens. The board of governors may from time to time recommend a special tax be laid to fund projects beneficial to the health, comfort, protection and convenience of the members of the association. Said special tax, together with receipts from other sources, if any, authorized by said association shall not exceed an amount sufficient to meet appropriations for the proposed costs of such projects, provided any special tax recommended by the board shall not be effective unless approved by a majority of the members of said association at a special meeting called for the purpose of voting on such recommendation. Said special tax shall be levied and collected in the same manner as the annual tax provided for in this section.
